

Mental retardation day

Chennai: The Third International Conference on Early Intervention in Mental Retardation will begin on Friday at Hotel Savera. The key themes to be presented during the two-day conference include: recent research in early detection and prevention, interventions, medical and special education and Policy and Programme towards the implementation of the Rights of the Child. By ENS